BIG GARAGE BURNS

FIRE AT CLEARMONT DESTROYS THIRTEEN NEW AUTOMOBILES

WAS WORK OF A FIRE BUG

Building Was In Flames When Discovered Early This Morning—Gas Tank Lock Chiselled Off

Fire of an incendiary origin totally destroyed the O. O. Gregory garage at Clearmont early this morning and thirteen new automobiles, 1,000 tires, repairs, tools and other articles were burned. The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock this morning by Luther Perry, who lives close to the garage. He was awakened by the roaring of the flames. He gave the alarm About one-third of the building was gone at that time.

Another fact that indicates the fire was of incendiary origin was that the electric light service was out about that time in the morning. Clearmont is furnished service by the Maryville Electric Light & Power company.

The door and lock to an underground gasoline tank in front of the garage was chiseled off. It is thought that gasoline was secured from this tank and that entrance was gained to the building by breaking in a front window. The heaviest fire at the time it was discovered appeared to be where the new cars were stored. It is supposed that gasoline was poured over these cars.

The loss is estimated at $25,000, while others figured it much higher. The new cars destroyed were owned by the following:

Five Buick autos by James Hornbuckle, agent.

Three Chevrolet cars, by Gregory & Newlon, agents.

Two Nash cars belonging to Gregory and Nash.

A new Mitchell car owend by Lawrence M. Cummins and a new Buick belonging to Jeff Linebaugh. Mr. Cummins and Mr. Linebaugh had their cars partly insured.

Another car destroyed was a Buick over which a suit was pending in the circuit court here. The title of the replevin suit was James Hornbuckle against Mark M. Adkins.

A tractor belonging to Guy Clary, which had been taken to the garage for repairs, was burned up. One thousand new tires were destroyed.

Five old cars in the back part of the garage were saved.

The building was insured, while no insurance was carried on the cars, tires, tools and other articles. The front part of the building is brick, while the back part is frame with a tin covering.

Deputy Sheriff Romasser went to Clearmont this morning to make an investigation.

On the first of April, 1918, there was a balance on hand in the road fund of $19,519.23; of this sum $7,627.87 was in the general fund, with $890.97 in the special road and bridge fund; $3,322.27 was in the road bond and interest fund. The balance was distributed among the nine districts, with each district having approximately $900 on hand.

When the bonds were voted it was with the promise that the state would supply a like amount for the road fund, but this has never been done.

The closing lesson of the first week's instruction in the government training school for housewives was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Ed Dale. Miss Ora McMillen, head of the home economics department of the state Normal, conducted the lesson Wednesday afternoon and Miss Anna Bainum, head of the domestic science department of the high school, had charge of the lesson Tuesday afternoon. Approximately one hundred women are registered in each class. The lessons this week have been in the nature of addresses preparatory to the demonstrations which begin next week. The classes begin promptly at 3 o'clock in the basement of the Elks Club.

Each week a window display, showing samples of the various foods, will be placed in the south window of the Schumacher grocery. A sugar display was placed in the window today.

The demonstrations given from now on by the instructors named above and their assistants from the senior classes of the Normal and high school, will begin with the wheat substitutes and the uses of the various flours and cereals.

Any woman who cannot come on the day she has registered can enter on a later day, but in order that she may have credit for attendance which counts on her final certificate, must see that her attendance is marked on her regular day.

Schools in various towns of the county will open next week. Miss Anna Bainum will go to Hopkins on Tuesday to introduce the work there. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Herschel Houston of Burlington Junction will conduct the first lesson there and on the same day Mrs. Ed Dale will start the lessons at Parnell. Instructors and dates for Elmo, Pickering and Barnard will be arranged for within a few days.

TAKE UP PRICE FIXING AGAIN

Evidence Grows That Government Will Fix Prices On All Primary Commodities

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, April 19. — With the attention of congress again focused on price fixing by a fight for $2.50 wheat a growing demand is in evidence today that the government will wait and fix prices on all primary commodities or else will bandon all efforts at price fixing. Half way measures, such as fixing the price of wheat and allowing the cost of all ccarser grains ordinarily of less value to overstep the wheat price had not achieved their purpose, democrats and republicans agreed.

THE 1920 CENSUS

NATION-WIDE ENUMERATION TO REQUIRE SPECIAL LEGISLATION

SOME NEW PROBLEMS NOW

The Estimated Cost for the Work of the Next Census Bureau Is $20,000,000—A Big Job

Washington, April 19. — Congress will be faced with the necessity of providing millions of dollars for the 1920 census.

Just what inquiries will be made at every American home is the problem now being worked out before determining upon the exact appropriation needed. Census Director Rogers estimates that the total cost of the census, including the annual and other inquiries occuring during the decennial census period, if done in accordance with plans the census bureau has formulated, will not exceed $20,000,000 to $22,000,000. The estimated cost of taking the population census alone is $10,440,000.

Besides considering population the bureau's plans contemplate the usual elaborated inquiries on manufactures, agriculture, mines and quarries, annual special inquiries and other work. This includes vital statistics, statistics of cities and states, tobacco, cotton, cotton seed products. Taken collectively, Director Rogers says that the estimated cost of various lines of work would run: manufactures, mines and quarries, $2,593,000; agriculture, $6,049,000, mostly for field work; population, $10,440,000. The expenditures for the census of 1910 were about $15,500,000.

Get Industrial Facts.

The census bureau is receiving many suggestions for the extension of the usual field of nation-wide enumeration. There has been a great demand to know the stock of hides, leather goods and manufacture of saddles, shoes, boots, belting and leather goods, and it was deemed essential to get at once the leather output, including the wool drawn from the hides of kids and sheep that goes into the manufacture of woolen goods. The Tanners' Council, an organization of the tannery owners, is getting that information now and furnishing it to the government at a cost of $30,000 to $50,000. They collect statistics of raw material, different kinds of leather, amount in stock, as well as the cured or finished product, but the census bureau proposes to ascertain more than that. The bureau wants to know the uses to which the raw materials and manufactured product are to be put, the stock on hand, consumption by the manufacturers and the prospects of having a supply for the country's future needs, all of which delves into the field of shoes, boots, saddles, beltings, harness and many finished products of value. The census will gather this information by mail and through special agents.

Take It In Six Months.

Despite criticism of belated census reports in past years, Director Rogers says the population of the United States could be ascertained and made public in six months, and likewise the number of farms, by counties and by states, and that any other information on which the government wanted quick results could be sent out promptly. He says the fuel administration war trade board, tariff commission and internal revenue bureau make daily use of the basic census facts.

Before the house census committee, which is about to frame the necessary legislation, there has been considerable criticism of a limiting provision proposed by the census bureau that "in no case shall information furnished under the authority of this act be used to the detriment of the person or persons to whom such information relates." Representative Miller of Washington contended that the information should be permitted such use as a court or governor might see fit, as it is not a judicial or inquisitorial proceeding. Representative Houston of Tennessee contends the clause is futile.

Big Crowd at Red Cross Show.

A capacity house saw the films shown at the Christian church last night for the benefit of the Red Cross. "The Retreat of the Huns from Arras" was a "close up" of the war that was especially good, while "Mrs. Slacker" was in lighter vein. The Red Cross treasury is richer by nearly $100.

TO EXTEND SCOPE OF DRAFT

Tentative Plans for Legislation to Make Males From 18 to 50 Eligible Are Being Prepared

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, April 19.—There have been prepared by the provost marshal's office and submitted to the White House tentative plans for legislation to make all males between 18 and 50 years old subject to the draft instead of the present age limits.

It is not proposed that the present military age limits and classes should be disturbed—those in the draft between 21 and 31 being subject to duty with the fighting forces. But all men in the proposed age limits would have to register, fill out questionnaires just as those in the present draft did, and then be subject to call for such duty as the government might need them for in labor and other work, outside of straight military duty with the army as fighting men.

A reminder of the fuel-less days of last winter came today when the mercury took a tumble to near the freezing point, following a cold rain and sleet, which turned to snow this afternoon. The weather forecast says the thermometer will go to below the freezing point tonight, which, if the skies clear, means disaster for sarden truck. Farmers are welcoming the rain and snow, however, as the moisture is greatly needed at this time.

The forecast for Saturday is fair and somewhat warmer.

Attacks Were Carried Out With Great Ferocity and With Utter Disregard for Losses—No Important Points Are Gained

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, April 19.—The Germans renewed their attacks on both ends of the Flanders battle front late Thursday but were repulsed with heavy losses, the war office announced today. A determined effort was made by the Germans to take Kemmel ridge just west of the lower end of Messines ridge, but their assaults broke down under the British fire. On the southern flank the German concentrated their pressure around Givenchy but there, too, met with reverses. All the attacks were carried out with the greatest ferocity and with utter disregard for losses. The Germans were able to gain a footing in only one or two advanced British defenses. In some minor operations the British captured some prisoners and machine guns.

Paris, April 19.—The French artillery carried out a heavy bombardment of the German positions east of Amiens last night, destroying a number of machine gun emplacements, the war office announced today. A number of prisoners were taken.

MITCHELL WELLING WRITES

Former Maryville Bank Clerk Now In Army Camp In New York

The following letter written by Mitchell Welling was received by a friend in Maryville yesterday. Mitchell left the employ of the Farmers Trust company April 1 to enter the army. He came from Kankakee, Ill., last fall to take the place in the bank of his brother, Murray Welling, who was assigned to Camp Johnston, Jacksonville, Fla. Mitchell had been employed for some time previous to coming to Maryville at Kankakee, and was registered there and sent with an Illinois contingent.

"Sunday Morning, April 14.

"Sunday morning in camp. We did not have to get up this morning at 5:45, but about 6:30 for 7 o'clock breakfast. Neither did we have to report for reveille at 6 a. m., but we were all here to roll out for retreat at 6 p. m. tonight. I am getting along just fine. There's only one thing wrong—I didn't bring enough clean and heavy clothing. We haven't been issued any clothing yet, only our overcoats, but they are awfully warm.

"This is a pretty chilly place as we are surrounded by water and the last three or four days while on the drill ground it was pretty chilly and windy. Yesterday it drizzled rain most all day and night before last some snow fell; enough that the ground was white yesterday morning and we did not have to drill; but we did have to take a long hike both in the morning and in the afternoon, and I might say I was just a wee bit (?) tired when we came back. We have been quarantined since we landed. By this I mean none of us can go out by ourselves; a bunch or none. Guess there are about 1,000 men here. They have started to examine some of them but haven't got to our bunch yet. There were 105 left in the bunch from Kankakee and when we left Chicago there were sixteen coach loads—about 600 men. Sure was some trip. Came by the way of the Michigan Central to Niagara Falls and from there to Palmer, Mass., via the New York Central, and the rest of the way by the Central Vermont.

"Our first stop was in Detroit where the Red Cross served our breakfast. This was Thursday morning, April 4. We left there about noon and rode all p. m. through Canada. It was pretty hilly, and some snow. Our first stop was at Niagara Falls, where they stopped the train and we could all get off and see the Falls. This was about 6 p. m., Thursday. We crossed the bridge into the U. S. again and stopped at the station for about an hour. Here each of us got a lunch box and our coffee; left here about 7:30 Thursday evening; next was at Albany, N. Y.; went on through Rochester and Syracuse, N. Y., and arrived at Springfield, Mass., about 10:30 Friday morning and stopped there for breakfast. We were then about 125 miles from camp. We came down to Palmer on the main line and then took a branch road out. The time was pretty draggy after that, heavy train, single track, etc. Arrived at New London that evening and were served sandwiches and coffee by the Y. W. C. A. Then we took the boat over to the Island, better known as Fisher Island. After we got into our quarters several were sick, mostly with the grippe from exposure. I have a little cold, but otherwise feel fine. Got my first mail yesterday. Was sure a tickled boy. Give my best regards to all my friends.

"Yours truly,

"MITCHELL WELLING.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then — a bad breath — a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

A NEW WAY TO FEED CATTLE

Greatest Departure That Has Come In Last 20 or 30 Years—Opportunity for Greater Profits

A marked departure in methods of feeding beef cattle has been worked out at the University of Missouri college of agriculture by Prof. H. O. Allison. The new plan involves feeding relatively large amounts of corn silage. No corn other than that contained in the silage is given the steers. After three years of experimental work with this method the college of agriculture is recommending it, because it offers the possibility of fattening from three to five steers on an acre of corn instead of a single steer which could be fattened under the old system. In other words, at least 160 steers can now be fattened where only 40 were fattened under the old plan.

This is the greatest departure in cattle feeding that has come within the last 20 or 30 years. It has a number of advantages for the feeder since it offers him opportunity for greater profits. Even when the steers are fed at a loss this method has the advantage over the old plan since the losses are not so great. When the price of steers shows a margin above the cost of feeding this method gives the feeder greater profits than the old system. Therefore it is the safest method of feeding under either condition because it offers maximum profits and minimum losses.

The college of agriculture has found that the steers fed on corn other than that contained in the corn silage have made more money than those fed under the old plan during every trial that has been conducted. The steers which make the most money in the experiments conducted last winter received an average daily ration per steer of 2.77 pounds of linseed oil cake, 2.54 pounds of clover hay and 45.48 pounds of corn silage. This lot returned an average profit per steer of $15.04. The lot which made the next highest profit, $14.02 per head, received 4.49 pounds of linseed oil cake per steer, 2.61 pounds of clover hay and 44.98 pounds of corn silage. According to this trial the increased amount of linseed oil cake fed to the second most profitable lot was not justified. The least profitable lot, which returned only $5.27 per head, received an average daily ration per steer of 16.60 pounds shelled corn, 2.77 pounds linseed oil cake, 2 pounds of clover hay and 27.21 pounds corn silage.

Those feeders who are interested in this method of feeding will find further information in Bulletin 150 of the college of agriculture, Columbia, Mo.

Maryville Minister Thankful.

"I had stomach trouble for nearly 20 years also constipation which filled my system with gas and fever. I could not do my work, and while I was down sick a lady from out of town sent me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy which proved truly wonderful. I believe it is the best medicine on earth." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Maryville Drug Co.

Red-blooded men of courage are on the firing line—and there are many anemic, weak, discouraged men and women left at home.

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru. They may have frequent headaches and sometimes "pimply" or pale skin.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the springtime of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a one is extracted from Blood root, Golden Seal and Stone root, Queen's root and Oregon Grape root, made up with chemically pure glycerine and without the use of alcohol. This can be obtained in ready-to-use tablet form in sixty cent vials, as druggists have sold it for fifty years as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form.

A good purge should be taken once a week even by persons who have a movement daily, in order to eliminate matter which may remain and cause a condition of auto-intoxication, poisoning the whole system. To clean the system at least once a week is to practice health measures. There is nothing so good for this purpose as tiny pills made up of the May-apple, leaves of aloe and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in this country as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, sugar-coated, easy to take.

Buying Power

In the meat business no one can justly claim to have any buying advantage—QUALITY is the only thing that makes any difference in the prices. The only way we know to buy cheaper meats is to buy cheaper live stock—poor quality.

We deal with large, substantial and reliable packing houses—they can furnish us with several grades of meat, but all of it is good, healthy stock, killed and handled in the most sanitary way, and we prefer to buy the best grades even at the risk of loosing some trade on account of high prices.

We are not responsible for high prices—the farmer is feeding high priced grain—he is getting high prices for the live stock—the packing house records show that the consumer is paying a very small margin over the live stock price for killing and handling the meat. Quality is the only thing that really controls our prices, and—

Our Prices are as Low as Our Quality Permits.

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. B. B. Zielinska, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. Josephine Kimble, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

"Broken Ties."

Corinne La Force was a beautiful girl — an unusually attractive girl. But she had negro blood in her veins, as she ascertained by overhearing a conversation in which her guardian participated. But that did not prevent her from loving Arnold Curtis, who also protested that he loved her. When Corinne thought that Arnold's love for her was waning she went the limit to retain his love.

You'll see what Corinne did when you see "Broken Ties," shown at the Empire theatre tonight. June Elvidge, Montagu Love and Arthur Ashley are starred in this production. These three stars are seen in particularly effective roles and the production will interest you exceedingly.
